of the next installment, the entire principal sum and accrued interest shall at once become due and payable at the option of the holder.

6. The defendant's indebtedness with the plaintiff is:

- a) $41,037.23 of aggregate principal;
- b) $17,414.30 of interest accrued as of June 30, 2007 and thereafter until its full and total payment, which interest amount increases at the daily accrual rate of $10.12;
- c) $30,732.68 of Subsidy Recapture;
- d) Plus insurance premium, taxes, advances, late charges, costs, court costs, disbursements and attorneys fees guaranteed under the mortgage obligation.

7. Defendant, as debtor of the amounts prayed for in the complaint, is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED to pay unto the plaintiff the amounts specified and set forth in the preceding paragraph 6.

8. In default of the payment of the sums herein specified or of any part thereof within the ten (10) days from the date of entry of this judgment, said property shall be sold by the Marshal of this Court at public auction to the highest bidder thereof, without an appraisement or right of redemption for the payment and satisfaction of plaintiff's mortgage within the limits secured thereby.

9. The Marshal of this Court shall make the sale hereinabove mentioned in accordance with 28 U.S.C. Section 2001 and Section 2002 and the applicable provisions of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico Mortgage Law. The notice of sale shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation once a week during four (4) consecutive weeks. The amount of $45,830.00 shall serve as the minimum bid for the first public sale. Should the first public sale fail to produce an award or adjudication, two-thirds of the aforementioned amount shall serve as the minimum bid for the second public sale. Should there be no award or adjudication at the second public sale, the basis for the third sale shall be one-half of the amount specified as minimum bid for the first public sale. The Marshal of this Court shall proceed to issue the corresponding notice of sale to be published in a newspaper of general circulation without the need of further orders or writs from this Court. Such sale shall be subject to the confirmation of this Court. Upon confirmation the Marshal shall execute the corresponding deed of judicial sale to the purchaser and he shall be entitled to the delivery of the property sold and its physical possession, in accordance with law. Said possession may be obtained through eviction of the occupant of the property without the need of further order of this Court if executed within sixty (60) days from the confirmation of the public sale.

10. Any funds derived from the sale to be made in accordance with the terms of this judgment and such further orders of this Court shall be applied as follows:

a) To the payment of all proper expenses attendant upon said sale;

b) To the payments of that part of the indebtedness owed to the plaintiff in the same order and for the amounts specified, and set forth in the preceding paragraph 6;

c) If after making the above payments there shall be surplus, said surplus shall be delivered to the Clerk of this Court, subject to further orders of the Court;

d) In the case the proceeds from the said sale are not sufficient to cover the full amounts owing to the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall be entitled to a deficiency judgment against the defendant and shall have execution therefor.

11. The Property Registrar of the corresponding Property Registry of Puerto Rico shall proceed to the recording of the judicial sale deed in favor of the purchaser, free of any liens subsequent to the date of the execution of the foreclosed mortgage.
